READY?

LET’S GET STARTED!
Welcome to the National Voter Registration Day team! On September 17, 2024, we’ll be celebrating democracy through a single day of nonpartisan action and celebration designed to ensure all eligible voters are registered and #VoteReady. We’re proud to count you among this year’s coalition of partners.

Celebrating National Voter Registration Day has been partner-driven from the very beginning. In a nationwide collaborative effort, partners of all sizes and sectors from local food pantries to Fortune 500 companies stage a 24-hour democracy blitz aimed at getting every eligible American #VoteReady for their next trip to the polls. Over the holiday’s first 12 years, the resourcefulness and commitment of partners like you who make this day possible has resulted in more than 5 MILLION Americans being registered to vote. The collaborative holiday, which includes thousands of community partners and over 100 major national organizations and corporations, is housed at and managed by Nonprofit VOTE which itself provides nonpartisan resources to help nonprofits integrate voter engagement into their ongoing activities and services.

In addition to the high-profile presidential race, there are plenty of other races for Congress, governors, state legislatures, mayors, city councils, and more that have a direct impact on communities across the nation. With the help of coalition partners like you across the nation, we plan to get more than 750,000 Americans #VoteReady this year.

National Voter Registration Day is celebrated every year on a Tuesday in September. First organized in 2012, it is the nation’s largest nonpartisan civic holiday dedicated to celebrating our democracy by registering as many eligible Americans to vote as possible through the collective efforts of thousands of volunteers, nonprofit organizations, businesses, schools, libraries, election officials, and individuals from across the country.

National Voter Registration Day is endorsed by the National Association of Secretaries of State, National Association of State Election Directors, the US Election Assistance Commission, and the National Association of Election Officials. The holiday is governed by a Steering Committee composed of a diverse, nonpartisan group of civic and business leaders, including election officials from both sides of the aisle.
KEEPING IT ABOUT DEMOCRACY

National Voter Registration Day is about democracy. It’s about doing something, big or small, to help your community participate in the electoral process. We’re helping people use their voice—not telling them what to say.

Following are three major ways we keep National Voter Registration Day about democracy and not partisanship:

1. NO ELECTIONEERING
   National Voter Registration Day events cannot be used to advocate on behalf of a particular candidate or ballot measure. By keeping National Voter Registration Day strictly about registering people to vote, we keep it a feel-good democracy event that everyone wants to participate in.

2. NONPARTISAN POSITIVE MESSAGING
   In addition to not advocating for partisan issues, there’s a lot you can do to help National Voter Registration Day stay all about democracy and the importance of turning out the vote in your community. Keep it positive and check out our communications tools.

3. INCLUSIVE OUTREACH
   When interacting with potential voters, no targeting may be done on the basis of party. By all means, gear your outreach to your local community, communities you or your organization serve, areas with historically low turnout or populations, and/or those who are new to voting, such as young voters or new citizens.

Avoid:

- Asking people who they plan to vote for or who they voted for in the past
- Wearing shirts, buttons, or stickers that support a candidate or convey a political message
- Getting pulled into political debates with people you are registering or bystanders
MAKING A PLAN FOR THE NEXT FEW MONTHS

Preparing for National Voter Registration Day on September 17 requires strategic planning and execution. Here are ten ways local organizations can get ready, segmented by July, August, and September. From planning and promoting the day to engaging the community and running voter registration drives, these steps will ensure a successful event.

JULY: PLANNING AND PREPARATION

- Sign up to receive posters and stickers - Become a community partner and you can place an order for posters and stickers to display around your community / event. All at no charge.
- Form a Planning Committee - Assemble a team dedicated to organizing and executing activities for National Voter Registration Day.
- Develop a Plan - Outline goals, identify target audiences, and determine the specific activities and events to be held.
- Partner with Local Organizations - Reach out to community groups, businesses, and schools to form partnerships and collaborate on voter registration initiatives.

AUGUST: PROMOTION AND COORDINATION

- Promote on Social Media - Start a social media campaign to raise awareness about National Voter Registration Day, sharing important dates and voter information.
- Create and Distribute Marketing Materials - Design and distribute flyers, posters, and banners in high-traffic areas to inform the community about upcoming voter registration events.
- Host Informational Workshops - Train volunteers on local voter registration laws and best practices for talking with voters.
- Engage Local Media - Collaborate with local newspapers, radio stations, and TV channels to promote voter registration events and share success stories.
SEPTEMBER: EXECUTION AND FOLLOW-UP

◆ Provide Online Registration Information - Offer links and resources for those who prefer to register online, ensuring they have access to reliable information and support.

◆ Finalize Event Details - Confirm all logistical details, such as venue arrangements, equipment needs, and volunteer schedules. Make sure you have all necessary supplies, like registration forms and informational brochures.

◆ Engage with the Community - Conduct community events or informational sessions leading up to NVRD to educate the community about the importance of voter registration and the registration process.

◆ Run Voter Registration Drives - On National Voter Registration Day, set up registration booths at strategic, high-traffic locations such as schools, libraries, and community centers. Ensure you have knowledgeable staff or volunteers available to assist with the registration process and answer any questions.
EVENT CHECKLIST

Use this checklist to make sure you and your team are prepared for National Voter Registration Day!

PLANNING

- Build Your Team: Bring in people and partners who are passionate about voting, are good at organizing and tracking details, and/or are charismatic and enjoy talking with strangers. Make sure you have someone on the team who can grant or get approval for the timing and location of the event.

- Timing & Location: Select a high-traffic area where people will be stopping or passing through and time your event to coincide with the location's busiest hours. Avoid tourist attractions or events attended by folks from out-of-state. If you expect out-of-state attendees or your event is near a state line, have national registration forms handy or a computer open to Vote.gov.

- Promotion: Get the word out by posting flyers around the location 2-4 weeks in advance and/or spreading awareness through social and traditional media. See the Communications Strategy Guide for sample social media posts, press releases, and additional assets.

- Paper or Digital Voter Registration: Decide which options for registering will be available at your event. Tablets or QR codes open to your state’s registration portal can reduce errors and the need to handle paper forms. However, it’s good to have paper forms as a backup. If your location lacks WiFi or your state does not have online registration, consider using paper-based forms. If you will not deliver completed forms on behalf of voters, consider supplying stamps and envelopes for voters to mail their forms.

MATERIALS

- Voter registration applications (and stamps and envelopes if needed)
- Pens and clipboards for writing on
- QR-coded flyers or posters with registration link
- Stickers and other fun giveaways
- Swag from the National Voter Registration Day store to draw people’s attention
- A lock-box or large manila envelopes for completed registration forms

In compliance with state and federal law, any giveaway items at your event must be made available to anyone regardless of whether or not they register to vote.
Recruiting and training volunteers for nonpartisan voter registration drives is essential for its success. Here are some effective strategies, from leveraging social media and partnering with local organizations for recruitment to conducting comprehensive training workshops and providing online training modules to ensure volunteers are well-prepared and confident in their roles.

RECRUITMENT

Most events will not need more than 2-3 volunteers helping with registration at a time. Keep shifts shorter than 4 hours, but make sure you have any set-up or break-down time covered.

1. Leverage Social Media - Use social media platforms to post volunteer opportunities. Create engaging content and share stories about the impact of voter registration.

2. Partner with Local Organizations - Collaborate with community groups, schools, churches, and civic organizations to reach potential volunteers. These partnerships can provide a steady stream of enthusiastic helpers.

3. Host Information Sessions - Organize sessions where potential volunteers can learn about the importance of voter registration and how they can get involved. Provide clear details on what the role entails.

4. Create an Online Sign-Up Form - Make it easy for people to volunteer by creating an online sign-up form. Include information about the tasks, time commitments, and any special requirements.

5. Engage Through Local Events - Attend community events, fairs, and festivals to recruit volunteers. Set up a booth with information about your voter registration drive and sign-up sheets.

ASSIGN ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Clear roles will make it easier to manage the planning and execution of your voter registration drive. Here are a few examples that will help ensure a well-organized and effective voter registration drive, maximizing the impact on the community.
Event Organizer
◆ Responsibilities: Plan and coordinate the logistics of the voter registration drive, including securing locations, obtaining necessary permits, and organizing materials and supplies.
◆ Skills Needed: Strong organizational skills, attention to detail, and ability to multitask.

Outreach Coordinator
◆ Responsibilities: Engage with community members, promote the event through various channels (social media, flyers, local media), and build partnerships with local organizations and businesses.
◆ Skills Needed: Excellent communication skills, networking abilities, and enthusiasm for community engagement.

Registration Assistant
◆ Responsibilities: Assist individuals with completing voter registration forms, answer questions about the registration process, and ensure all forms are correctly filled out and submitted.
◆ Skills Needed: Knowledge of voter registration laws and procedures, patience, and attention to detail.

Data Manager
◆ Responsibilities: Collect, organize, and manage data from the voter registration drive, including tracking the number of registrations and ensuring data privacy and accuracy.
◆ Skills Needed: Strong data management skills, familiarity with spreadsheets or databases, and attention to detail.

Volunteer Trainer
◆ Responsibilities: Train new volunteers on the voter registration process, provide them with necessary materials and information, and offer ongoing support and guidance.
◆ Skills Needed: Experience in training or teaching, strong understanding of the voter registration process, and excellent communication skills.

Photographer
◆ Responsibilities: We'd love to see your event in action! Encourage volunteers to take pictures of each other assisting voters (ask before snapping a photo!). If you use social media, be sure to share it with the hashtags #NationalVoterRegistrationDay and #VoteReady
◆ Skills Needed: Basic photography skills. If you’re using your phone, remember to turn the screen horizontally to take any videos.
Anyone assisting voters should review the Voter Registration 101 sheet, the Staying Nonpartisan Fact Sheet, and do a role-play with another volunteer to practice engaging with voters. Provide volunteers with the tally sheet and give them instructions on what to do with completed forms.

- Conduct Comprehensive Training Workshops - Hold workshops to educate volunteers about the voter registration process, legal guidelines, and best practices. Ensure they understand the importance of maintaining a nonpartisan approach.

- Provide Training Materials - Create and distribute clear, concise training manuals or handouts that volunteers can reference. Include FAQs, troubleshooting tips, and contact information for support.

- Role-Playing and Mock Scenarios - Use role-playing exercises to prepare volunteers for real-life interactions. Simulate common scenarios they might encounter while registering voters.

- Online Training Modules - Develop online training modules for volunteers who cannot attend in-person sessions. These can include videos, quizzes, and other interactive elements to ensure comprehension.

- Regular Check-Ins and Feedback Sessions - Schedule regular check-ins with volunteers to answer questions, provide additional training, and offer support. Encourage feedback to continually improve the training process.
VOTER REGISTRATION 101

With the exception of North Dakota, states require a person to be registered in order to cast a vote in elections. When you help people register, you make democracy work!

This is a general guide for conducting voter registration drives on National Voter Registration Day. Find state-specific information and additional resources at your local election office or on our website. All National Voter Registration Day partners commit to remaining nonpartisan and abiding by state and local laws while registering voters.

VOTING ELIGIBILITY

Everyone who registers to vote must attest (be able to prove) that they are:

- A citizen of the United States (for federal elections and most state and local elections);
- At least 18 years of age by Election Day (unless the state offers pre-registration); and
- A legal resident of the state they register in (students may register in their school OR home state, but may only register and vote in one).

THERE ARE TWO OPTIONS FOR REGISTERING TO VOTE:

Using Paper Registration Forms

- Low-tech and readily accessible
- No WiFi or device necessary
- Accepted in every state*

Assisting voters: Make sure a voter has filled out all required fields

- Checkbox: 18 or older
- Checkbox: U.S. Citizen
- Date of birth (make sure they didn’t put today’s date here)
- Residential address (can’t be a P.O. Box)
- State ID # or last 4 digits of social security number
- Signature

Accessing paper forms: Call your state or local election office to request forms, or print your own where allowed. The federal form may also be used.

Registering Online

- No paper forms to handle
- Fewer mistakes
- Available in 42 states & DC

Using the NVRD portal: Our registration page utilizes Vote.gov and official state online registration portals where available. Click or scan the QR code to connect to the portal.

Use your state or a third-party portal:
Connect voters directly to your state’s website where available for registering online. Third party tools add extra steps, but also provide automatic voting reminders.

ID requirements
In most states, voters will need to have a state-issued ID # in order to register. Voters without the necessary ID can usually still register with paper forms.

Review state laws prior to offering voter registration. Contact your local elections office or see our 50 state legal guides for more. Do not offer to retain and submit paper voter registration forms in Florida, New Hampshire, or Texas without proper authorization.
Before talking to voters, make sure you’re smiling, looking upbeat, and comfortable with the questions in the grid below. Feel confident when you walk up to people—you’re making democracy work! You can adapt this script for yourself, but we think this is a great way to open conversations:

“Hi, I’m [name]! Did you know today is National Voter Registration Day?”

Once people engage, ask the following questions. In the first column, make a tally for every person you ask. In the second column, mark whenever someone registers via paper form or online. In the third column, make a tally for every person who commits to text three others to register.

| “Can we make sure your voter registration is active and up to date?” | [If yes, offer paper form or online option to register (QR code, tablet, etc.)] “Awesome, can you fill this out? It will only take a minute.” | [After registering or if up to date] “Great job! Will you text three friends to remind them to update their registration today?” |
| Paper                                                                 | Online                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

Don't forget! Turn in this tally sheet and all paper voter registration forms you collect to the person running the event. They need to share these numbers with National Voter Registration Day and send the forms to the elections office.
TIPS FOR TALKING TO VOTERS

HAVE FUN!

◆ Get out from behind that table and invite people to talk to you.
◆ Give a shout-out every time somebody registers to vote and compliment the heck out of them. If you make somebody feel special for participating, you can bet they’ll want to keep doing it and invite others.
◆ Keep it interactive. Move or say something while you’re standing around, and have a good time. This can help make the whole process much less intimidating for new voters.
◆ Make sure you’re approachable. Standing or walking in pairs is encouraged, but not at the expense of talking to voters instead.

BE THE KIND OF PERSON YOU’D WANT TO TALK TO.

◆ Be friendly.
◆ Talk like a regular person. Don’t be a robot and read directly off the script.
◆ Be up front about what you’re doing in a positive way. Identify yourself as a volunteer with an organization immediately when you start talking to people.
◆ Don’t get discouraged or take things personally. If somebody is rude, shake it off and move on.

HAVE A CONVERSATION — TALK WITH PEOPLE, NOT AT PEOPLE.

◆ Ask questions and listen to the answer. Tailor your message to what the individual says.
◆ Find your own pitch. Experiment and figure out what works best for you.
◆ Talk to everyone you see. The next person could be amazing!
◆ While being careful to remain nonpartisan, connect voting to people’s lives and issues they care about. (Don’t assume and don’t ask intrusive questions, but if someone lets you know about issues that are important to them, connect the dots (see “tailor your message to what the individual says” above).
STAY ON MESSAGE.

◆ You’re not telling people who or what to vote for, just helping them register!

◆ National Voter Registration Day is a positive way to celebrate democracy—that takes all of us!

CLOSE THE DEAL.

◆ Always make the ask. If you can, put the clipboard and pen in a person’s hand while you’re talking with them.

◆ Don’t backtrack. Once you ask, wait for the person’s response.

If you have handouts, give them to the person at the end of your conversation to prevent distraction.

Most states now offer online voter registration. Check your state’s election website to see if this option is available.

Q: Do I need to show ID to register to vote?

ID requirements for voter registration vary by state. Some require a driver’s license or state ID number, while others may ask for the last four digits of your Social Security number.

CONCLUSION

With your help on National Voter Registration Day, hundreds of thousands of Americans will take the first step to being #VoteReady by acting on their eligibility and registering to vote in upcoming elections. Whether you help three or 300 hundred voters on this year’s holiday, you are making a difference.

We can’t do this without you, and your events are what make National Voter Registration Day great!

Here are some final reminders as you begin the planning process:

◆ National Voter Registration Day is about democracy, not political parties, candidates, or particular issues. Use this as an opportunity to come together, celebrate our shared values, and bridge differences in your community.

◆ It’s better with friends. Join forces with other groups in your area to build local relationships and maximize the number of voters you will reach. Maybe you can start a tradition and team up every year!

◆ Have fun, but take it seriously. Make sure you’re following state rules around voter registration, that voters are filling out the form legibly, and that all forms make it back to the proper elections office within the allotted time frame. Missing any of these steps could mean that a voter that registered with you won’t be on the rolls when they go to vote. This is why training is so important.

◆ Don’t reinvent the wheel. We want to make this easy for you, so be sure to read the emails from the National Voter Registration Day team and check out the National Voter Registration Day website and social media channels so you don’t miss anything. We’ve got trainings, tools, and tips to make the day as easy as possible for you and help your event run smoothly.
